Message from the Prez

Our 4th of July barbecue was a special time food, stories and humor. We also had many happy winners of the extra-large fundraiser. See the pictures further below.

Our thanks go to Robert Jordan for ordering and delivering the club meat, along with his famous banana pudding, even though he couldn't stay. Tommie took a fall and broke both wrists, needing him full time at home. Thankfully the casts are now off and Robert takes her twice a week for physical therapy. Our prayers are with Tommie for a full recovery.

A number of you have asked when I would show pictures of the archaeological dig I go to twice a year in Israel. Paul Wilson emailed that we didn't yet have a speaker lined up for this month, so it looks like my turn is up. Come and see pictures of the two thousand year old coins and other objects we're finding at the Khirbet el Maqatir ruins nine miles north of Jerusalem.

Don't forget to check our Announcement board at the meeting. If you have any interesting stories, pictures, club newsletters, hunt flyers, or other items of interest to add, please feel free to post them.

Happy hunting, and as always fill your holes and leave nothing behind but good impressions.

EJ
