Presidential Thoughts:

Welcome everyone to 2018. I hope everyone enjoyed the holidays. This year I hope to try some new things for our club, especially more large group hunts. The next meeting is coming up and I hope everyone found some amazing things to show since the last meeting. Once again thank you for the nomination of President and happy hunting.

Mike

A note about our official club website from Webmaster Brooks Harkey:

Not everyone is aware that we closed our old website and moved to a new host at <http://www.longstartreasure.org>. Please note that we are .org and not .com! If we click more frequently on the new site it will move up in the search engines and become the first view as opposed to the old url which takes you to a different site. I have also updated the “events” tab to include not only all our 2018 meetings, but also all the upcoming activities on the TAMDC website as well – flyers and all.

Mark these 2018 dates on your calendar:

- January 26

- June 29 (4th of July Independence Day Potluck)

Andy Mesaros donation by Keith Wills

Andy Mesaros (member of the Lone Star Treasure Hunters club in Irving, TX.) donated to the children at the Camp 25,000 baseball, hockey, and basket ball cards in excellent condition. We discussed putting them in packets which Andy is also donating 3000 so that each child that we visit with in our annual program there will received a packet with a handful of mixed cards.

The donation was given to me and I will be building the packets over time before our next visit.

I have known Andy for many many years and have had a chance to treasure hunt with him in the past. He has always been a very generous man, sometimes to the point that it hurts, most of the clubs know this.

“ANDY, we take our hat off to you my friend!!”

We sincerely thank Andy for such an expensive donation and for thinking of the kids first.

Rechey Davidson's new book

Congratulations to Rechey Davidson on publishing a book with the online publisher FastPencil at <https://fp.fastpencil.com/products/EKPIQ7I8O341>. Here's a screen capture:

Ambush at Quitman Pass
by Rechey Davidson (Author)

Print: $15.95

This is a collection of Western short stories written over several years. A 10th Cavalry (Buffalo soldiers) story, two outlaws trying to keep out of jail, a hunt for Spanish treasure, and a young bank teller's attempt to save his bank from a robbery. I finally decided to get them printed.
