President's Corner

Paul Wilson

I hope everyone had a great time at the Christmas party and you won a coin, and ate too much. The new board has had one of the first board meetings and have decided to make quite a few changes. The one I hope everyone will get on board with is to get on a committee and help run the club. The meetings will be less business and more fun with great speakers, training for the new hunters, buried caches and a return of the Fun Hunt. You will have to be at the meeting to get the hint on where the treasure is buried and you will have to be on a committee to hunt in the committee spring hunt so we want you there. I will be asking everyone to start bringing things to put in the caches and old finds to seed the Fun hunt so the new bees can have something to find. The raffles will have a new twist, and we need committee chairs to head up these new committees. Set up and put back for the tables and chairs in the meeting room .bylaws ,cache, greeters helpers for all the old committees so we have someone to help when a member is sick or out of town. I will go into all of the new changes in January you need to be there for hints on the first cache and we will be returning to a Find of the Year. You can call me any time you want to volunteer .Last but not least Dues are due and without your paid up dues you can't put anything on the FOM boards or be on a committee, VERY IMPORTANT. that you be at the meeting.

Immediate changes all raffle tickets must be folded in half/All visitors will be seated in front and will be first in line to eat/...After FOM awards. first place winners leave piece on the board for FOTY entry winner.

Having been a treasure hunter since the age of 14, Nugget Noggin pushes the limits in exploring his true passion for metal detecting and gold prospecting.
