President's Corner

Paul Wilson

We hope the new year has started off well for everyone. This Friday will be the first meeting of the year and we will have a few items of business to discuss for the coming year. I would like to start lining up guest speakers so let me know if you have any ideas or anyone in mind. Among the things we'll be talking about is doing some special weekend hunts at private sites so be thinking about some suggestions. Examples would be old homesteads, stage relay stations or railway stations, military encampments, famous civil war sites, Alamo sites of Mexican camps, Bonnie and Clyde Kill scene, famous bandit hide outs, and of course the beach. These are just a few places that come to mind but we definitely would welcome other ideas.

If you have any ideas for the newsletter, want to submit an article or information on an event, email Sue and share your ideas.

From the desk of Treasurer Robert Jordan

With the beginning of a new year, we need to collect dues for 2023. I will be accepting dues at the January 20 meeting. Single dues are $25 and Family is $30.

We will resume planting caches and would appreciate any donations to fill the cache jars. Our Members Only Spring Hunt will be on May 13, a Saturday at Samuel Farm Park in Mesquite.

Please come to our January meeting as I will be speaking regarding Club finances.
